Road to the State Finals

Three hundred and ninety five (395) girls varsity basketball teams across the state of Indiana have entered the 2020 IHSAA Girls Basketball State Tournament.

Beginning Tuesday, February 4, those hopefuls will match up in 64 sectional tournaments across four classes. There are 101 Class 4A, 103 Class 3A, 97 Class 2A, and 94 Class A teams vying for a title. After 391 games in 26 days, the best of the best will hoist the coveted hardware at Bankers Life Fieldhouse, home of the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever in downtown Indianapolis.

The Jac-Cen-Del Lady Eagles are notable statewide this year, as they hold the current sectional tournament winning streak at 11 straight titles (playing for their 12th). The next closest streak in the state is eight by Bedford North Lawrence and six by Hammond Bishop Noll. The Lady Eagles have a few years to go before setting the all-time winning streak of 18 in a row by Rushville from 1980-97.

Sectional champions will advance to one of 16 regionals on Saturday, February 15. Then, semi-state action is slated for Saturday, February 22 and the state finals on Saturday, February 29. Visit IHSAA.org for more tournament and ticket information.

"This is what all of the kids have been waiting for since last October, when practice sessions started in the small Indiana high schools. This is it...the die is cast, this is what all Hoosier basketball fans have been talking about for the last month. The old axe will hit hard once it gets started and it will not stop until we have a new champion." Wm. "Tiny" Hunt - Feb. 24, 1970
