Thank You Charlie!

Charlie Whalbring has been in the transportation industry since 1980 and has donated his time and equipment to deliver food and supplies to our community people time and time again. He has sacrificed time with family and put himself last to ensure local communities and communities abroad received what they needed when they needed it. The service and dependability of Charlie is unmatched in this industry and can continue to be seen on every load.

Thank You to all of our drivers at Laudick Trucking!

Thank you to every truck driver in America for keeping this country moving!

We are proud of the drivers who represent Schuler Farms Inc., anything from hauling milk to agriculture products, these drivers are excellent. During this difficult time for our country our drivers are still providing excellent service. We would like to thank them and their families for the commitment and tireless work. It is wonderful to see how the country is truly appreciating the demanding and very important job.

Again, we can not thank you enough, David and Rachel Schuler
