More memories from Bricktoberfest

The Jac-Cen-Del School Band was on hand on Saturday, September 21 to start the day off right at the Ninth Annual Bricktoberfest on the Brick Street in Osgood. The great music gave the indication that the day was lining up to be a good time. There were hundreds of people who attended the event this year listening to the many performers and checking out the numerous vendors taking part. The car show was one of the largest and was in memory of Bob Linville.

Manderley Health Care showed their appreciation to the community at their booth offering free popcorn, popsicles and had a free drawing at the 9th Annual Bricktoberfest on Sat. September 21. Pictured is Monica Ogden, Administrator; Ashley Walcott, Sales; and Linda Mills, Receptionist.

It was a great turnout on Saturday at Bricktoberfest with The Osgood Grub Company serving the famous steak sandwiches, pulled pork and hot dogs. They estimated to sell 600 to 800 sandwiches. Pictured at the grill is Dan Horn and Brad Bultman.
