ISP partners with DEA for 27th Drug Take Back Day

This Saturday, October 26, the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) is sponsoring the 27th nationwide "Prescription Drug Take Back" initiative. The "Take Back" initiative seeks to prevent prescription drug abuse and theft through proper disposal of prescription drugs.

Collection sites will be set up nationwide for expired, unused, and unwanted prescription drugs which will be properly disposed of without threat to the environment. This program is for liquid and pill medications. Vaping pens without batteries and vaping cartridges will also be taken. Needles, new or used, WILL NOT be accepted for disposal. This service is free and anonymous with no questions asked.

resses a vital public safety and public health issue. Medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse, and abuse. Rates of prescription drug abuse in the U.S. are alarmingly high, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs. Studies show that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet.

In addition, Americans are now advised that their usual methods for disposing of unused medicines—flushing them down the toilet or throwing them in the trash—pose both potential safety and health hazards.

Once again, the Indiana State Police is pleased to partner with the DEA, and as in the past, unwanted medications may be dropped off at any Indiana State Police Post, except for the Toll Road Post. The event will be on Saturday, October 26, 2024, between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Swiftie Fest coming to B'ville

Batesville Main Street will be hosting "Swiftie Fest" on Sunday October 27, 2024, 1:00-4:00pm at RomWeber Party Place in downtown Batesville. This event coincides with the Indianapolis tour stop for Taylor Swift's Era Tour.

The festival is open to Swiftie's of all ages. There will be vendors, music, photo opportunities, food, activities and fun. Whether repping your "Red" scarf or ready to "Shake It Off" this festival is the place to relive every Era of Taylor's iconic career. This event is free and open to the public. Come dressed for your favorite era and don't forget your friendship bracelets.

Amy Pretzer, Executive Director of Batesville Main Street said, "We're very excited to bring Swiftie Fest to the RomWeber Party Place. With the high-ticket cost and lack of ticket availability for the Eras Tour it is a way for the community to still have the excitement and celebrate all things Taylor. We are able to bring the community together with many local vendors and have a fun afternoon building friendships in the Main Street District."

There are still vendor spots available for Sunday's event if you are interested, please reach out to our planning committee by contacting Sammie Hardebeck at sjselke@gmail.com.

Mark your calendars, grab your squad, and get ready to "Begin Again" with us at Swiftie Fest! This event is free and open to the public.

About Batesville Main Street
Batesville Main Street, Inc. is an Indiana Not-For-Profit Corporation, which was founded in 2010 and operates thanks to countless volunteers. It aims to be a catalyst for the economic and physical rehabilitation, development, growth, and sustainability of the defined downtown district. Batesville Main Street is guided by a volunteer Board of Directors and efforts are carried out by volunteer committees and their members.

More information about Batesville Main Street, including its mission, Board of Directors, completed projects, future efforts, and the Main Street District, can be found at www.batesvillemainstreet.org.

Batesville Main Street is a standalone, non-membership based, volunteer driven, 501(c)(3) organization. Batesville Main Street is an entity separate and apart from the City of Batesville and the Batesville Chamber of Commerce. If you are interested in supporting Batesville Main Street and its efforts through a financial donation, please visit www.batesvillemainstreet.org/donate/ or stop by the Batesville Memorial Building and ask for Amy Pretzer.

Tri-State Wrestling returns to area

Tri-State Wrestling will host its final show of 2024 on Saturday, November 2 at The Knights of Columbus Great Hall in Batesville, Indiana. Doors are scheduled to open at 6 p.m., with bell time at 7 p.m.

This year's season finale titled "Oh Baby" will feature a special appearance by former WWE superstar Heath. Meet and greet packages are available that include autograph and photo opportunities with the former WWE Tag Team Champion.

Scheduled for the main event is a "2 out of 3 Falls" match for the Tri-State Wrestling Heavyweight Championship, with current champion Myron Reed defending against the former champion Tre' Lamar. This will be Reed's first title defense after winning the championship in September, ending Lamar's title reign of more than 14 months. Matches also announced for the November 2 show:

Heath will be in action as well, teaming up with former TSW Heavyweight Champion VsK to take on Carson Drake and Aaron Williams. With his surprise appearance at September's show, Williams already has taken a verbal shot at VsK, and now the two will meet in tag action as well. "No Limit" Matt Diesel and Damian Chambers have been going at one another all year, often with Kayla Cassidy getting involved to tilt things in Damian's favor. The two will meet one more time in Batesville, but with Kayla handcuffed to the referee! In a match between two talented women making their TSW debuts, Sierra will take on Rachel Armstrong.

Additional matches will be announced soon. Batesville High School graduate Ethan Lunsford, known professionally as Luck E. Haskins, is scheduled to work the show as a referee as well.

Tickets for the show start at just $15 and are on sale now at TSWTickets.com.
